GIATTA

Giatta Castell hails from Fior mes Ivèrno, a community of animancers who settled in the Living Lands some fifty years ago. After losing her parents to a lab accident, she aims to finish their research and leave her mark on the science of souls. Her determination is outmatched only by her cheerful defiance to authority.

Giatta may be less familiar with the fashion of her Vailian ancestors, but she dresses for any situation, whether research or exploration. She carries the phantasmal focus, the very invention that contributed to her family's downfall. Time will tell how she chooses to use it.
